

Sample Only

Day 7- Beijing

9am	Students to meet in the hotel lobby Transfer to a Beijing private School
10am	On arrival Chinese students and Australia students will tour the School to practise their language communication skill.
After lunch	Provision of Chinese language/cultural lessons.
Note	As a gesture of appreciation for the hospitality shown, students are requested to gift an English story book to the school library.
2pm	Departs Beijing private school and transfer to Silk Market (Xiu Shui Jie) Free time for shopping.
5.30 pm	Dinner of famous Peking duck. After dinner transfer back to hotel
7.00pm	Beijing train station to take overnight train Z19 to Xian
Meals	Chinese Lunch and Dinner
Transportation	Coach, Train (Z19 dep. 8:48pm)
Accommodation	Train (4 – soft bed cabin)

Day 8- Xi An

8.30am	Arrival at Xian and transfer to hotel. One the way, stop at fast food take away to buy breakfast. Hotel check/rest
11.30am	Transfer to lunch with menu of a 100- year history and delicious local food known as “Yang Shou Pao Mo” (羊肉泡馍/BBQ Lamb) in Xian Fan Zhuang Restaurant.
After lunch	Transfer to the ancient city wall of Xian. The wall was built 600 years ago, 14 km in length From here you visit the Big Wild Goose Pagoda.
Dinner	Dumpling or Jiaozi in Chinese is one of the most representative of Chinese food and its beginning is dated back two thousand years ago. It is popular with the Chinese and tourist alike. Enjoy the Jiaozi dinner with the Tang Dynasty Show. The Tang Dynasty (618 to 907) showcases the costumes, music, and dancing of China's golden age.
Meal	Breakfast, Chinese Lunch and Dinner
Transportation	Coach
Accommodation	4 -star

Wild Goose Pagoda

Points of Interest

Big Goose Pagoda is one of the oldest structures in China. Originally Big Goose Pagoda consisted of a brick structure of five stores and was about 60 meters high. First built in 589A.D.in the Sui Dynasty. Between AD 701 and AD 704 during the reign of the Empress Wu Zetian five more stores were added to the pagoda making ten in all.